POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

50 years after Dr. Martin Luther King and others imagined the #PoorPeoplesCampaign, Americans across the country, including in New Hampshire, are weaving together a unified MORAL MOVEMENT to confront poverty and economic inequality, systemic racism and injustice, a war economy and ecological degradation — with the aim of reclaiming the political, economic and moral structures of society for the common good.

Go to www.poorpeoplescampaign.org to learn about the national launch of the Poor Peoples Campaign with Rev. Dr. William J. Barber and others — and join your NH neighbors on December 14 at 6:00 p.m. in Manchester to get involved locally.
