

Don't Miss It!

Keeping Faith: Sisters of the Story

by Rohina Malik

Rohina Malik, a Muslim woman and storyteller, returns to Concord with a NEW 70 minute production that demonstrates the peace and commonalities between us all.

Three women: a Muslim, a Jew and a Christian each share 3 stories from their faith journey to help us come together around our commonalities and decide who we are going to be as a community and as a nation and how we are going to allow our story to be told.

Sunday September 16, 2018 – 2:00 p.m.

CAPITOL CENTER FOR THE ARTS – 44 S. MAIN ST. CONCORD, NH

TICKETS: $10 - Purchase via phone (603-225-1111) or at <https://ccanh.com/series/upcomingevents> or at the box office.

Presented by NH UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST (UCC) *PEACE WITH JUSTICE ADVOCATES

in collaboration with the Immigration and Refugee Support, Economic Justice, and Racial Justice Mission Groups of NH UCC; Greater Concord Interfaith Council; Islamic Society of Greater Concord; South Congregational Church; Temple Beth Jacob; Concord Interfaith Discussion Group; NH Peace Action; American Friends Service Committee; Compassionate Listening Group; Meriden Congregational Church, UCC; Hanover Friends Meeting; Showing Up for Racial Justice Upper Valley VT/NH; United Valley Interfaith Project; Keene Immigrant and Refugee Partnership; The Building a Culture of Peace Forum; NH Friends of Combatants for Peace; Unitarian Universalist Society of Laconia; Upper Valley Refugee Working Group; Community Asylum Seekers Project; also Aissa Sweets, LLC and Washington Street Café and Catering.