“The wound is the place where the Light enters you.” — Rumi

The Community of Plymouth, New Hampshire and Plymouth State University grieves with its Muslim siblings in Christchurch, New Zealand after the tragic mass shooting while worshippers were praying.

Join us in a candlelight vigil that both affirms the humanity of those who were killed and wounded in a hate crime that left 49+ dead while they were worshipping in a time of prayer. As a community that values peace and the rejection of racism, religious bigotry, ethnic hatred, and violence we stand in solidarity with those who were victimized by a white supremacist with an ideology of intolerance.

Many Faiths, One Humanity

Event will be held inside the church in case of inclement weather.
Organized by the clergy of Plymouth, NH*
