WORK OF THE PEOPLE AWARD HONOREE

Barbara Keshen is the chair of the NH Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty, a group originally formed by the NH Council of Churches. She is also a member of the UU Church of Concord. Following her career in criminal law, Barbara turned her energies to the repeal of the death penalty, organizing faith and secular leaders and even preaching sermons about how faith informs her repeal work.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Bishop Dwayne D. Royster is the National Political Director of Faith in Action and the Designated Pastor of Faith United Church of Christ in Washington, DC. Bishop Royster serves as the Founder of the Society for Faith and Justice. The Society is an ecumenical religious order committed to a charism of social justice as spiritual discipline and spiritual practice.

Father Constantine Newman (Greek Orthodox) testifies in support of death penalty repeal, which passed on May 30
